

POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATION FOR THE HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONS

This course is offered by The School of Medicine & Dentistry,
Queen's University Belfast

It is designed to provide a knowledge of the educational principles underpinning practice; while at the same time addressing the issues and dilemmas encountered by educators of the health care professions.

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

Applications are welcome from all those involved in the education and training of health care professionals.

HOW MUCH TIME WILL THIS COURSE REQUIRE?

The duration of the course is one year of part-time study. Lectures are held from 6.00 p.m. until 9.00 p.m. on a bi-weekly basis. However, the modular structure of this course facilitates the busy professional as students have the option of completing one module per semester.

WHY SHOULD I CONSIDER ENROLLING FOR THIS COURSE NOW?

In recent years there have been a number of innovations in education and training for the health care professions. These include:

- ⊞ new directions in curriculum development and planning
- ⊞ the introduction of student centred teaching and learning methods
- ⊞ increased use of performance-based assessment methods

The following changes in education and health care policy will have implications for education:

- ⊞ a requirement for more accountability for education
- ⊞ changes in the structure and delivery of undergraduate and postgraduate education
- ⊞ changes in the structure and delivery of health care

The emphasis on small group teaching techniques throughout this course provides students with an opportunity to exchange ideas about education and training with others.
